"Grayson, 6, is a sweet, funny, giggly little boy who spends the majority of his days in classrooms and therapy rooms. He has been receiving speech, occupational and ABA therapy since before he was two. He has added physical and music therapies to his days. He loves Mickey Mouse, Little Einstein's and most recently, has actually sat, watched and paid attention to Moana. Having a chance to spend time at Disney World, where he can just be a little boy, would be amazing.

Grayson doesn't yet speak but we can always tell when he is happy and I think a trip to visit Mickey Mouse would be the happiest time of his life."
